

Monitoring foundations

The PDA-W data-processing system in the Pile Driving Analyzer can estimate the pile resistance distribution and tension envelope on-site. While these estimates can't replace CAPWAP analysis, they do give the operator useful, real-time insights. Other features include a color screen offering better visibility, a built-in CD writer for data storage and an improved version of the PDILOT program that produces report-quality graphs and tables of test results.

File Dynamics

www.pile.com/pdi/default.asp?Company=PDI